

New Consensus Standard: ANSI/ASSP Z16.1-2022

Safety and Health Metrics and Performance Measures

The American Society of Safety Professionals (ASSP) recently published American National Standards Institute (ANSI)/ASSP Z16.1-2022, Safety and Health Metrics and Performance Measures standard. The Z16.1 standard promotes the use of leading, lagging, and impact metrics to assess safety and health efforts and to help drive continuous program improvement. You can purchase this standard on the ANSI webstore at <https://webstore.ansi.org/>.

To learn more about the standard, check out ASSP's podcast: How the Z16 Standard Can Help You Improve Metrics and Performance Measures.
