

Best Practices: Safety Leadership at Every Level

Thursday, July 21, 2022, 1:00 p.m. EDT

On 7/21/2022 at 1:00 p.m. EDT, the SMCX will host the “Best Practices: Safety Leadership at Every Level” webinar.

This webinar focuses on the promotion of safety leadership for all levels of the workforce to improve your safety and occupational health management system (SOHMS). The webinar defines safety culture and discusses how safety leadership influences organizational attitudes and perceptions towards safety and health (S&H). In addition, the webinar provides several tools and resources you may utilize to measure your safety culture to identify improvement areas. The webinar concludes with a discussion of work activities and best practices requiring worker buy-in, involvement, and leadership to make everyone a safety leader at your organization.

Image courtesy of Creative Commons
(free to share & use)

This introductory-level webinar is beneficial to personnel wanting to learn more about safety leadership at every level. Personnel gaining the most benefit from this presentation may include executive leadership, managers & supervisors, non-supervisory employees, and S&H professionals.

Please click the article headline or registration link here to register for this FREE workshop.

NOTE: We will be capping attendance at 100, so be sure to register early!

For additional information on the SMCX’s services, please visit the SMCX-hosted website at: <https://www.smscx.org/>.