

Winter Weather Preparedness

Be sure to prepare and protect yourself and your employees from cold stress and other winter weather hazards.

OSHA offers a number of informational resources on its Winter Weather page, available at:

https://www.osha.gov/dts/weather/winter_weather/index.html.

This site includes articles, tips, and plans for such topics as cold stress, preventing slips on snow and ice, hazards/precautions, and cold weather preparedness.

You can also find a wealth of information specific to your local areas on the National Weather Service (<https://www.weather.gov/>) website.
